

Injuries and acts of violence described by George Vaughan compared to the evidence provided by Dr Andrea Morris.

 Statement by Vaughan supported by Dr Morris

 Contradicted by Dr Morris.

 Exaggerated.

Statement made by George Vaughan	Statement made by Dr Morris
McArthur got Vaughan in a headlock and dragged him out of the door.	No evidence of any injury.
Vaughan's legs were kicked away causing him to fall heavily injuring his ribs.	No evidence of any injury.
McArthur kicked Vaughan in the body several times.	No evidence of any injury.
McArthur forcefully started 'trying to rip at my lower jaw'.	No evidence of any injury.
McArthur hit Vaughan twice in the head.	Injury consistent with one blow.
McArthur rammed his knuckle into Vaughan's eye.	No evidence of this injury.
Vaughan claimed that his injuries had been 'treated'. Page 3, highlight green.	No treatment given. Page 9
Vaughan claimed he had a badly swollen nose. Page 3, highlight blue.	'tender nose' Page 9, highlight green.
Severely bruised/blackened left eye. Page 3, highlight red.	'a black eye' Page 9, highlight red.
Vaughan claimed he needed strong painkillers, Page 3, highlight yellow.	'Over the counter analgesia' Page 9 highlight blue.
Number of allegations of injury or violence made by Vaughan	10.
Allegations fully supported by Dr  statement,	0.	